ROUTE 66 RACEWAY ANNOUNCES 2012 NHRA NATIONAL RACE DATES, JUNE 28-JULY 1

Route 66 Raceway today announced that the facility, for the fifteenth consecutive year, will host the NHRA Full Throttle Drag Racing Series during the 2012 season, June 28-July 1.

"NHRA Full Throttle Drag Racing is an experience that touches all five of the human senses. We witnessed that excitement again this past season with an NHRA Nationals event that saw dynamic racing, incredible weather and tremendous fan turnout," said Scott Paddock, Route 66 Raceway president. "The O'Reilly Auto Parts Route 66 NHRA Nationals is an event that our fans look forward to each and every year, and we are excited to have them return to Route 66 Raceway in 2012 with four days of racing on June 28-July 1."

Summit ET Finals – September 16-18

Good luck to all of the racers representing Route 66 Raceway in the NHRA North Central Division 3 Summit ET Finals at Lucas Oil Raceway at Indianapolis. Route 66 Raceway is the defending Team Spirit Champions and will this year use the “En Route to Pomona” theme – symbolic of Route 66 Raceway’s racers taking a slight detour to Indianapolis before hitting the highway and traveling West to Pomona. Track announcer Dennis Switzer will serve as the Route 66 Raceway team captain.

Traxxas TORC Series welcomes Motocross great James “Bubba” Stewart to Chicago!

One of the world’s premier and most recognizable action sports athletes – motocrosser James “Bubba” Stewart – has announced he will race a Team Menzies Red Bull/Oakley TORC Series Traxxas PRO Light class truck at next week’s (Sept. 14-15) 2011 Traxxas TORC Series, presented by AMSOIL, off-road championship short course racing round at Chicagoland Speedway/Route 66 Raceway’s dirt oval.
